HATE: A FILM SCREENING AND PANEL DISCUSSION ON THE RISE OF MODERN ANTI-SEMITISM

Featuring a conversation with filmmaker Nadav Eyal

November 10, 2016 | 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

University Hall | Room 1040

In commemoration of Kristallnacht (November 9-10, 1938), join Montclair State University faculty and Israeli filmmaker Nadav Eyal for a private screening and discussion of the award-winning documentary Hate (2014).

Eyal, an acclaimed Israeli journalist, presents this mesmerizing documentary film concerning the resurfacing of an ancient hatred. In it he tries to understand how the virus of Anti-Semitism survives and continues to infect.

By moving from victims of Anti-Semitism to experts and finally to the bigots themselves, the film generates a credible and frightening document. It explains some areas of Anti-Semitism's resilience, and supplies a variety of dramatic encounters and confrontations with the perpetrators of racism.

The event is free and open to the public, but pre-registration is required and space is limited.
